PARTICIPANT INFORMATION FORM
Evaluation of IRB Procedures Regarding Informed Consent

Background Information
You are invited to be in a research study about the use of informed consent in research. We ask that you read this form and ask any questions you may have before agreeing to be in the study. Your participation in this research is voluntary. There is no penalty for refusal to participate, and you are free to withdraw your consent and participation in this project at any time. You can skip any questions that make you uncomfortable and can stop the interview/survey at any time. Your decision whether or not to participate in this study will not affect your relationship with the IRB.

This study is being conducted by: Whitney McAllister, University Research Compliance, Oklahoma State University.

Procedures
If you agree to be in this study, we would ask you to do the following things: Complete an online survey.

Participation in the study involves the following time commitment: 30 minutes.

Compensation
You will receive no payment for participating in this study.

Confidentiality
The information you give in the study will be anonymous. This means that your name will not be collected or linked to the data in any way. The researchers will not be able to remove your data from the dataset once your participation is complete. We will collect your information through an online survey using Qualtrics. This data will be stored on a password protected computer. The research team works to ensure confidentiality to the degree permitted by technology. It is possible, although unlikely, that unauthorized individuals could gain access to your responses because you are responding online. However, your participation in this online survey involves risks similar to a person’s everyday use of the internet. If you have concerns, you should consult the survey provider privacy policy at https://www.qualtrics.com/privacy-statement/.
